

Helping you build a strong foundation

Get custom-fit protection for your business with the Businessowners program (BOP) from Allied Insurance. BOP offers top-quality coverage for small- to medium-size businesses. Property and liability protection are packaged into one convenient policy, along with optional coverages and flexible pricing. Here are just some of the coverages offered.

Property and liability protection

- Property coverages including business income, equipment breakdown, and debris removal.
- Property coverage extensions for newly-acquired property, personal effects, and newly-acquired locations-business income.
- Optional property coverages including actual cash value (buildings only), earthquake, employee dishonesty and outdoor signs-business income.
- Liability protection including coverage for liability arising out of bodily injury.
- Optional liability coverages like hired and non-owned auto liability and employee benefits administration liability.

Quality, value, and service

Our customers know the Allied name means quality insurance protection at a competitive price. Plus, it's all backed by caring, professional service that is second to none in the industry.

Convenient billing plans

With Allied, you can have your premiums deducted automatically from your designated financial institution with the Flex Chek program. Or, choose from other billing options and pay by check, credit or debit card. Plus, you choose your payment plan—pay the full amount, or pay in easy monthly installments.

24-hour claim reporting

Claims don't always happen during normal business hours. That's why Allied is ready to help whenever you need to report a claim, day or night.

Insurance protection for all your needs

Allied offers a variety of other personal and commercial insurance plans to meet your individual needs.

Working harder for you
